FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

WHEN the French began the Siege of Bergen-op-Zoom, they proceeded with their uſual Vivacity, in Hopes of making themſelves ſoon Maſters of the Place; but having met with a braver Reſiſtance than they expected, the ſeveral Repulſes they received made them reſolve to proceed with more Leiſure and Caution, ſo that nothing very remarkable happened till the Night between the 5th and 6th, N.S. when they made a vigorous Attack upon the Works called Kyk in de Pot, but the General, Baron de Cronſtom, who now commands in the Room of Prince Waldeck, having been informed of their Deſign, he had cauſed two Batteries to be erected on thoſe Works, charged with Caſe or Cartridge Shot, i. e. Pieces of old Iron, old Nails, &c. which were ſeveral Times diſcharged upon them as they advanced. Nevertheleſs they continued to advance till they came to a Cloſe-Fight with the Gariſon, which was continued with great Obſtinacy for a long Time, and after ſeveral Repulſes, they made a Lodgment upon one of the Angles of the Covered Way; but the Regiment of Burmania having thereupon advanced, and attack'd them in their Lodgment, and a Mine being ſprung, which blew up Part of it, they were drove from thence, and obliged to retreat in Confuſion. According to the Dutch Accounts, the Beſiegers had, in this fruitleſs Attack, above 1000 Men killed and wounded, and the Gariſon between 2 and 300.

From this Time the Beſiegers have proceeded moſtly by Sap, in order to ſave their Men, which has occaſioned the ſpringing of ſeveral Mines, both of the one Side and the other; however, in the Night between the 15th and 16th, they attacked and made a Lodgment on the Outwork called the Lunette of Zealand, after a moſt bloody Diſpute; and on the 27th they began to erect Batteries for battering the Body of the Place, but without Succeſs, and every Thing has ſince turn'd out to the Advantage of the Beſieged.

As to the two Grand Armies, they continued in the ſame Situation till the 14th Inſt. N.S. when the French ſet Fire to their Camp and began their March towards St. Tron; but they marched no farther than Tongres, where they again encamped, and his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty eſtabliſhed his Head Quarters at Hamlt. About the ſame Time the Allied Army made a Motion up the Maeſe towards Liege, the Duke of Cumberland having ſettled his Head Quarters at Richel, and Count Bathiani his at Eyſden, upon the Right of the Maeſe, but they have a ſtrong Detachment on the Side, on St. Peter's Mountain by Maeſtricht.

After the Battle near Exilles in Piedmont, of which we gave an Account in our laſt, the French and Spaniſh Troops retired towards Briançon; and after the Auſtrians had raiſed the Siege of Genoa, the French and Spaniſh Army under Don Philip, and Marſhal Belliſle, retired again and repaſſed the Var, by which it ſeemed as if the French had nothing elſe in View by the March of thoſe two Armies but the Relief of Genoa; but by our laſt Accounts Belliſle's Army ſeems again to be deſigning a March towards Genoa, or, at leaſt, to defend the County of Nice againſt the Grand Army of Auſtrians and Piedmonteſe Troops now aſſembling on the Side of Genoa, which is to be commanded by the King of Sardinia in Perſon.

All the Auſtrian Troops having paſſed the Bochetta, and retired out of the Genoeſe Territories, there is now nothing but Rejoicings in that City, and Thankſulneſs to the French for relieving them from their Enemies; for which Purpoſe they have ſent a ſolemn Embaſſy to France, and have created the young Duke of Bouffiers a Nobleman of Genoa, with ſeveral Marks of Diſtinction, in Acknowledgment for the Service done them by his Father, who commanded the French Troops in that City and died lately of the Small Pox.

In Holland they are taking all the Meaſures they can think of for their Defence. For this Purpoſe, their High Mightineſſes cauſed to be publiſh'd, on the 23d Inſt. N.S. a Placart, by which they order all the Boors or Peaſants to be armed and taught military Diſcipline; and farther they have wrote to the Magiſtrates of all the Cities to have their Citizens armed and diſciplined, and have ordered them to raiſe 100 Companies of City Militia, of 100 Men each, who are to join the regular Troops, to have 8 Stivers per Diem, and to be commanded by Officers appointed by his Serene Highneſs the Stadtholder. Theſe Companies are to be raiſed according to the following Proportion, Amſterdam 28, Rotterdam 11, Hague 10, Haerlem 8, Leyden 8, Dort 6, Delf 6, Gondo 5, Gertum, Schiedam, Alkmaer, Hoorn and Enkhuyſen, 2 each; Scoenhoven, Brille, Edam, Monnikedam, Medenblick and Purmerent, one each; one in the four Towns of Woerden, Oudewater, Wiſop and Nardon; and one in thoſe of Guertrudenbergh, Heuſded and Vlaerdingen. And, moreover, the Council of State having been inform'd that there were not a ſufficient Number of Pioneers at Bergen-op-Zoom, they have, by Proclamation, offer'd a Rixdollar per Diem, or even two, three, or four, according to the Nature of the Work in which they may be employed, beſides the uſual Pay, for all ſuch as ſhall volontarily liſt for that Service, together with a Penſion for Life for ſuch as ſhall be diſabled in the Service.

The Beginning of this Month an Edict was publiſhed in France, for creating a Fund of 1,260,000 Livers per Ann. to be divided among the Purchaſers according to the Terms therein mentioned; and Books of Subſcription being opened for this Purpoſe, there was no leſs than 1,500,000 which was returned to the Subſcribers. By Letters from Breſt we are told, that they are in all Haſte equipping there 15 Men of War and ſome Frigates; and from Spain, that the King has ſent Orders for equipping with all imaginable Diſpatch, the Men of War at Carthagena and Ferrol, together with two Fireſhips and four Bomb-Veſſels that are at Cadiz.

The 28th ult. the Secret Committee in Sweden made their Report to the Dyet of that Kingdom, relating to the Plot lately diſcovered, in which Dr. Blackwall had been found to be concerned; and on the 9th Inſt. according to Letters from Hamburgh, that Doctor was hanged for his Pains.

LONDON, Auguſt 1.

By a Gentleman who lived ſome time at Bergen-op-Zoom we were informed, that in the great Church lately demoliſhed by the French, there was a fine painted Window, which Lewis XIV. once offered 80 Millions of Florins for, and which is now ſhattered to Pieces. A French Florin is 1 s. 6 d.

The following is a Liſt from Paris, of the Loſs ſuſtained by the French at the late Affair at Exilles, July 19, N.S.

LONDON, Auguſt 3.

This Afternoon an Expreſs came to the Admiralty-Office from Sir Peter Warren, who arriv'd with Part of the Fleet at Plymouth the Saturday before, in order to victual and go out again in a few Days. On the 7th of July the ſaid Admiral took off Cape Finiſterre

the Thomar & Mary, a Spaniſh Pacquet Boat, bound from the Groyne to the Havanna. On the 8th he drove aſhore a French Frigate, about 8 Leagues to the Weſtward of Cape Pinas, where ſhe was ſet on Fire, and entirely conſumed by her Company. Our Captains, who were the neareſt, believ'd her to be a 40 Gun Ship. On the 27th he took the St. Antoine, a French outward-bound Eaſt-India Ship of 500 Tons, with 100 Men, and 16 Guns mounted, laden with Proviſions and Stores, for the French Eaſt-India Settlements. The Pacquet and St. Antoine are both brought into Plymouth

The Feverſham Man of War has taken in the Turkiſh Seas, a large Privateer: ſhe had a Spaniſh Commiſſion, and had done a great deal of Miſchief in thoſe Parts; there was found on Board of her 100,000 Dollars.
